

Instructor Biography V-WISE Phase I

Sandra Gonzales
President & Founder
Docere eLearning Solutions
est. 2013

Gonzales is the founder and president of Docere eLearning Solutions, LLC, a full service educational consulting firm. This former Army nurse served almost seven years on active duty. For the past 11 years, she has been a home educator for a family of 6 children. She and her husband, a retired Army officer, have been married more than 21 years.

After attending VWISE, EBV-F and completing Boots to Business, Gonzales won first place at two national business plan competitions earning a total of $50,000 in grants. She has served as part of an international team teaching Boots to Business at military bases overseas and online. She was honored as a White House Champion of Change and has been recognized at the local, state and national level for mentoring veteran entrepreneurs and military families.

Docere specializes in creating online programs and workshops for learners of all ages. Current projects include online classes and coaching programs to help entrepreneurs earn seed capital through business plan competitions. Roman Latin Rantin' teaches students in K-12 the fundamentals of Latin. This website and future online classes are designed to help struggling learners prepare for careers in STEM.