

Community of Practice (CoP)

JANENE MCGEE CHAMPION FOR CHANGE AWARD

In spring 2020, Mecklenburg County, the state of North Carolina, and the broader veteran community lost a fellow veteran and passionate advocate Janene McGee. In addition to leading the county Veteran Services Office team, Janene also championed several collaboratives addressing homelessness and suicide prevention.

In honor of Janene’s incomparable spirit advocacy for the military connected community, Syracuse University’s D’Aniello Institute for Veterans and Military Families has created a scholarship of $2,000 to support professional development opportunities for providers serving veteran and military-connected clients.

DEADLINE: March 31st, 2023

REQUIREMENTS:

In order to apply, you must submit the following two documents:

1. Completed application cover sheet.
2. Answer the following two (2) questions in essay format, not to exceed 1,000 words:
 - a. In honoring Janene’s unwavering commitment to veterans and their families – what does this mean to you as we work to coordinate care for veterans and their families and how does it apply to your work as a provider in communities?
 - b. How will this training improve your role as a provider serving the military connected community?

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION & DEADLINES:

The scholarship application will be open February 6, 2023 and close at 5pm EST on March 31, 2023. Please submit the complete application packet to Lyndsey Hodkinson, at LHodkins@syr.edu. Scholarship awardees will be announced on April 21, 2023. Awardees will have until April 30, 2024 to use their scholarship.

